Library of Virginia and Virginia Museum of Fine Arts Announce Winner of Annual Art in Literature Award

Hans Luijten to be honored at the 2023 Virginia Literary Awards

Richmond, Virginia – The Library of Virginia and the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts are pleased to announce Hans Luijten's book Jo van Gogh-Bonger: The Woman Who Made Vincent Famous (Bloomsbury Publishing, 2022) as the winner of the annual Art in Literature: The Mary Lynn Kotz Award. Luijten will be honored on Saturday, Oct. 14, 2023, during the 26th Annual Virginia Literary Awards Celebration at the Library.

Art in Literature: The Mary Lynn Kotz Award, sponsored by the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and the Library of Virginia, recognizes an outstanding book published during the previous year that is written primarily in response to a work (or works) of art while also showing the highest literary quality as a creative or scholarly work. Submissions can include works of journalism, poetry, fiction, biography or history, as well as museum exhibition catalogs. Established in 2013, the award is named in honor of Mary Lynn Kotz, author of the award-winning biography Rauschenberg: Art and Life (Harry N. Abrams, 1990).

A rich and in-depth biography, this year's winner, Jo van Gogh-Bonger: The Woman Who Made Vincent Famous, charts the multifaceted life of the little-known but no less influential sister-in-law of Vincent van Gogh, Jo van Gogh-Bonger, who was married to his art dealer brother, Theo. When the brothers died soon after each other, Jo took charge of Vincent van Gogh's artistic legacy and devoted the rest of her life to disseminating his work, ultimately establishing his reputation as one of the finest artists of his generation.

Despite being widowed with a young son, this visionary woman successfully navigated the male-dominated world of the art market. She published Van Gogh's letters, organized exhibitions in the Netherlands and throughout the world, and made strategic sales to private individuals and influential dealers. Van Gogh-Bonger's efforts fundamentally changed how we understand the relationship between Van Gogh and his work.

The author of this remarkable work, Hans Luijten, is a senior researcher at the Van Gogh Museum in Amsterdam. He studied Dutch language and literature and graduated with subsidiaries in art history from Utrecht University, where he also taught Renaissance literature. In 1996 he obtained his doctorate with a dissertation on the 17th-century emblem book Sinne en minnebeelden by the Dutch writer Jacob Cats (Huygens Institute – Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences. Printed in 3 volumes, 1627).

Luijten, author of Van Gogh and Love (Exhibitions International, 2007), edited Vincent van Gogh, Painted with Words: The Letters to Emile Bernard (Rizolli, 2007) with Leo Jansen and Nienke Bakker, the web version of Van Gogh's complete correspondence, www.vangoghletters.org (2009), and the six-volume Vincent van Gogh — The Letters: The Complete Illustrated and Annotated Edition (Thames & Hudson, 2009), which was also printed in Dutch, French and Chinese. This edition was followed by a row of anthologies in various languages. In 2019, Luijten published the biography of Jo van Gogh-Bonger, Alles voor Vincent (All for Vincent) (Prometheus Publishers) based on previously unpublished diaries, documents and letters.

Luijten lives in Amsterdam near the river Amstel with his wife, Natascha Veldhorst.

ABOUT THE LITERARY AWARDS

In 1997, the Library of Virginia established its annual Virginia Literary Awards program to honor Virginia writers and celebrate their contributions to the literary landscape of our state and nation. Given to Virginia authors in the categories of fiction and poetry — and to nonfiction authors for works about a Virginia subject as well — the awards are presented at an annual celebration that has become the Library’s signature event and an eagerly anticipated cultural tradition in Richmond. While the main award recipients are selected by independent panels of judges, the Library also invites book lovers and readers to vote for their favorite works for the People’s Choice Awards for Fiction and Nonfiction. In the past, the Library has also bestowed a Literary Lifetime Achievement Award to recognize the enduring influence of an outstanding Virginia writer, with past winners including Earl Hamner, Lee Smith, Jan Karon, Tom Robbins, Charles Wright, Barbara Kingsolver, Rita Dove, John Grisham, Tom Wolfe and David Baldacci.
